Laundry Love celebrates anniversary

The Westfield chapter of Laundry Love celebrated its one-year anniversary of the ministry on Feb. 23. In addition to the free meal that is always provided to every patron, the group celebrated with balloons and a cake. The Laundry Love Ministry meets 4:30-6:30 p.m. on the fourth Wednesday of each month at the Stanley Coin Operated Laundromat, 3 White St., Westfield. The ministry offers free washing and drying of laundry to all of those in need, on a first-come basis. Laundry Love volunteers from St. Mary's parish, pictured from left, are Rich and Cathy Sypek, Goodness and Sandra Odunukwe, Jamie Barnes, Allisa and Mindy Jacob, and the Rev. Duy Le. Not pictured are volunteers Lynn and Katie Corriveau and Calaeb Vieweg. (SUBMITTED)
